PHILOSOPHY OF PHILOSOPHY

The missional philosophy of ministry that I practice is one of exponential servant-leadership and Church development mobilized toward community transformation.

- To Reach (prayerful, intentional lifestyles, and methods of ministry aimed towards outreach {Matt 4:19; 1 Cor 9:19-23; 1 Tim 2:1-4})
- To Win (purposeful evangelism through sacrificial love, genuine relationships, and faithful witness {Mark 16:15-16; Acts 1:8; 2 Pet. 3:9})
- To Train (cultivating Christ-centered worldview, prayer, Bible study, overcoming temptation, stewardship, essential life skills, and unity {Mark 8:34-35; John 8:31; Phil 4:6; 1 Tim 2:1; Heb. 4:12; 2 Tim 3:16-17; Rom 12:1-2; Eph 6:13; Col 3:2; Mark 10:45; Rom. 12:10-13; James 1:19; Phil 2:1-4})
- To Send (empowering the discovery, development, and actuation of spiritual gifts for God's glory {Mark 16:15; Matt. 9:37-38; 2 Tim 2:24-26})

PERSONAL STATEMENT OF SALVATION AND CALL TO MINISTRY

I was raised by a single-mother in an unwholesome household and without any consistent positive male role models. As a result, I learned many of life's most basic lessons the hard way while scrambling to piece together "manhood." The "manhood" I reflected by the age of thirty was, among other contortions of God's design, of a self-centered, homosexual, cross-dressing, club-drug addict with a sorted criminal record of misdemeanors. I lived on the edge for the rushes and tensions in order to feel alive. In the summer of 2004 I accepted Christ as my savior and began partaking in the eternal life of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I, subsequently, surrendered my life to Christ lordship in November of 2004. Four months into my sanctification process God called me into servant-leadership in men's outreach and discipleship ministries. I have been serving in men's outreach and discipleship ministries ever since.

MINISTRY STATEMENT

The overarching goal of ministry is found in Matthew 28:19-20, which indicates that God desires that people live lives indicative of his presence, leadership, and an unequivocal faith in Him. Effective ministry develops mature Christians able to withstand, endure, triumph, and ultimately represent the embodiment of God's will for humanity.

DOCTRINAL BELIEF

I believe in God the Father, who, in His sovereignty, created and rules over all. I believe in Jesus the Son (dead, buried, resurrected, and ascended), who came to offer eternal life to those who repent, believe, and faithfully obey him. I believe in the active presence of the Holy Spirit, who effectively works in the lives of believers. I believe the Bible to be the infallible and inspired Word of God, sufficient for the needs of the believer and the universal church, including growth in holiness and righteousness unto the Lord.
